Terms and Conditions

Credit and Payment of Invoices: Invoices are due and payable on a net 30 days basis. A 1.5% interest per month on the balance due will be charged when payment is not received by the due date. Direct Mail Center reserves the right to suspend or discontinue production on any pending work for a Client whose invoices are delinquent. The Applicant shall be made liable for expenses incurred to such date, and Direct Mail Center shall not be liable for any loss because mailing was not made.

Collection Costs, Attorney Fees, Venue: Applicant expressly agrees that it shall be liable and pay all attorneys' fees, collection costs and court fees, whether or not incurred in connection with litigation, including but not limited to attorney's fees and costs associated with the enforcement of any of the terms of this Application and attorneys' fees and costs resulting from a default under this Application. Applicant agrees that all issues and disputes relating to any credit arrangement extended hereunder shall be governed in accordance with a competent jurisdiction chosen at the discretion of Direct Mail Center and that Applicant expressly waives its venue rights without reference to conflicts of laws principles.

Change of Ownership: Applicant must notify Direct Mail Center in writing, and by certified mail of any change in ownership, the name or the business structure under which credit is established.

Postage: Applicant's payment of all postage in advance is a material condition precedent to Direct Mail Center's performance. Direct Mail Center has the right to withhold any mailing without any liability or responsibility for any circumstances arising when mailing was held or late, should postage not be paid, or advanced to Direct Mail Center before the scheduled mailing date.

Storage of materials: In the case that a monthly storage fee is agreed between Direct Mail Center and the Applicant, the Applicant is responsible for paying the fee on a net 30 days term. Direct Mail Center reserves the right to stop providing storage service to the Applicant if the storage fees are not paid. The Applicant is advised that the storage fee paid to Direct Mail Center is solely for the rental of space at the premises for Direct Mail Center. The storage fee does not include business liability insurance. Direct Mail Center assumes no liability for all damage and/or loss caused by, but not limited to, theft, flood, fire, moisture, natural disasters, to the Applicant's materials stored in its premises. The Applicant stores his materials in the premises of Direct Mail Center at his own risk. The Applicant will not be compensated for any economic loss sustained resulting from damage and/or loss to its materials stored at the premises of the Direct Mail Center.

Materials furnished by the Client: Materials ordered by the Applicant for processing by Direct Mail Center must be of satisfactory quality and standard of production, to permit expeditious handling. The common causes of excessive production time are improperly manufactured envelopes, poorly folded circulars, and materials not in conformity with the normal graphic art standards, or United States Post Office specifications. While every attempt will be made by Direct Mail Center to work with materials ordered by the Client, troublesome situations will be brought to the attention to the Applicant, and may necessitate additional charges to compensate Direct Mail Center for increased production time.

Lists: Mailing list furnished by the Applicant are regarded as the Client's exclusive property, and are to be only as the Applicant directs. When the Applicant requests Direct Mail Center to compile lists for them, Direct Mail Center endeavors to find the best available source, depending upon the Applicant's requirements as to his definition, cost, and schedule of mailing. Direct Mail Center acts solely as a broker in these matters, and makes no guarantee of accuracy other than that set forth by the compiler, and assumes no responsibility for wasted postage, material or processing cost in case undeliverables exceed the supplier's guarantee. Direct Mail Center will, however, attempt to obtain adjustment from the supplier when the list is excessively inaccurate; but such situations shall not justify withholding any payment of our invoice.

Schedules, Delays and Overtime: Direct Mail Center will use its best efforts to meet all scheduled delivery and mail dates and assumes no responsibility for failure to meet schedules caused by delays beyond its control. Direct Mail Center prefers not to charge overtime on work, and will request Applicant's authorization to do so in instances where insufficient production time is allowed, or where supplier of Applicant's material is late in delivery.

Cancellations or changes in instructions: Applicant will be charged a $50.00 cancellation fee in addition to all costs incurred by Direct Mail Center prior to the time of notice of cancellation. Said costs include but are not limited to costs of material, labor, services, lists, and reasonable profit.

Severability in event of partial validity: If any provision of this agreement is held in whole or in part to be unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of that provision and of the entire agreement will be severable and remain in effect.
